A Dream Comes True

Overnight Success in 16 years

When are horses most comfortable under saddle?
How do you compensate for imbalances between horse and rider?
Why can thick pads hinder your horse's movement and comfort?

At the recent Equine Affair in Massachusetts, Rick Lamb of the award-winning "The Horse Show" chatted with Cavallo president Carole Herder. In this 12-minute audio segment, you will learn the answers to the above questions, as well as how Carole's interest and success in helping her own horses led to the development of the Cavallo brand.
